WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR

RESULT OF THE ELECTION—HOW THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY WAS DEFEATED—FIFTEEN THOUSAND ILLEGAL RADICAL VOTES POLLED—THE OHIO DELEGATION IN THE NEXT CONGRESS—THE DEMOCRACY NOT DISCOURAGED.

[CORRESPONDENCE OF THE N. Y. WORLD.]

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 18.

After a most gallant fight, in which every inch of the State was hotly contested, the Democracy are defeated by from ten to fifteen thousand majority. How this result was accomplished is plain to everybody here. Such an election almost approaches a farce, for as far as honesty in conducting a campaign is concerned, the Radical party are put to the blush in Ohio. In the first place, to carry out their nefarious objects and intentions, they nominated men for Congress, whom they knew to be defaulters, perjurers and thieves tried and convicted within their own bailiwicks. Such men, the like of Ashley, whose Conover manipulations are fresh in the public mind; Gibson, the defaulting State Treasurer of Ohio; Eggleston, "baggage-checker" for Hamilton County, and last, but not least in the mires of corruption, the notorious Bob Schenck, of Dayton. These were the men who cried, "Fraud! fraud! the State in danger!" when every honest man knew the noise was made to cover up their own guilty transactions. Would such men as Ashley, Gibson, Eggleston, and Schenck stop a single moment to colonize when an opportunity was afforded them? No! it is not in the nature of the men—it's not exactly their idea of a political fight. Now, from information upon which implicit reliance can be placed, it is absolutely true that not less than fifteen thousand illegal Radical votes were cast on Tuesday, besides an illegal vote of 8,000 in Northern Ohio. Carpet-baggers from Michigan, probably the agents of "blood-letting" Chandler, swarmed Northwestern Ohio, while Ashtabula, Lake, Trumbull, and Mahoning counties were filled with the hirelings of the Radical State Central Committee from New York. Besides this, every negro from Pittsburg, from Indiana, Detroit, and thousands from Kentucky, were rushed into those counties where the Radicals have large majorities, and, of course, manage things to suit themselves regardless of law—that "paradise" on God's footstool, the beautiful town of Oberlin, cast three hundred and twenty negro votes on Tuesday, and we find the Radical presses gloating over such a high handed outrage. Mr. Vallandigham was shamefully treated in his district. No regard whatever was paid to the laws of the State, and five hundred men, dependent upon charity, who were declared illegal voters by the Legislature of [illegible] Schenck, upon the ground that the Supreme Court would hereafter declare the law unconstitutional! Had it not been for that illegal vote in Dayton, Mr. Vallandigham would have been elected. He is defeated by only 411 votes. Mr. Wm. H. Gibson, Mr. James M. Ashley, Mr. Benjamin Eggleston and Mr. Cooper, have all been allowed to remain at home, enjoying the comforts and pleasures of private life. After such an expression from their constituents, it is doubtful whether such a course is very congenial to their tastes. Notwithstanding the gross frauds which they perpetrated, the voice of the people was too loud, and the devoted patriots were laid on the shelf. Winans, in the Columbus district, had a close shave. He has less than one hundred majority, and that was given him by the negroes in and about Zenia. Several other Radicals were run very closely—our friends making a gallant fight in every District. The following will comprise the delegation from Ohio to the Forty-first Congress. Democrats in italics:

Democratic gain, 4.

We are not discouraged nor dispirited. Ohio will continue the great fight till November, when we hope to triumph in our principles. Every County will be canvassed anew, the State swarmed with speakers, and next month, when imported negroes and carpet-baggers are required at home, we shall do far better than on Tuesday last.

RESERVE.

PENNSYLVANIA.

ADDRESS OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE, ROOMS, 901 AND 903 ARCH STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

To the Democracy of Pennsylvania:

You have fought a good fight. You have polled a larger vote than ever before, have reduced the Radical majority of 1866 by nearly one-half, and have proven the immortality of your principles and the vitality of your organization.

Radicalism has carried the State by means of the grossest outrages; by openly and corruptly buying thousands of voters; by driving from the polls foreign-born citizens regularly naturalized many years since; by rejecting the votes of thousands who were legally made citizens in the Court of Nisi Prius; by violating and trampling upon the seal of that court—a recognized symbol of the law; by deterring legal voters from approaching the polls through threatened penalties for imaginary offences; and by the despotic and unscrupulous use of power by election officers in Radical districts.

Under the specious charge of fraud upon your part, Radicalism has perpetrated the vilest frauds. Thousands of voters have been colonized, paupers assessed and voted, repeaters hired and voted five times in Radical precincts, returns of election altered and manipulated to suit their own purposes, and fraudulent naturalization papers issued by the ream.

In the contest just closed you have learned their capacity for violence and wrong, you have tested the strength of their organization, and discovered the weak points in your own.

With the experience thus gained in the school of adversity, we shall go forward to victory.

The enemy are yet to be taught that outrage and fraud, violence and wrong, cannot be perpetrated with impunity; they have yet to learn that you are neither dismayed or demoralized, and that in pursuit of the right you know no such word as fail.

Arouse the people once more for the conflict. Bring to the polls every Democratic vote. For right and justice give back right and justice. For outrage and wrong, return the full measure of swift retribution.

The work to be done is no holiday sport. It is the last battle for the salvation of the Republic, the preservation of the Constitution, and the supremacy of your race.

Work and fight as men engaged in such a cause should work and fight.

By order of the Democratic State Committee:

WM. A. WALLACE, Chairman.

NORTH CAROLINA

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

NEW YORK.

THE

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 60, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty three and one-third per cent greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this insult to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULD'NT HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. ONE GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN, THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS ABOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL MANAGE TO DISPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN, WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES TOO ARE THE BETTER IT TAKES. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE REBS IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT AFFRONTED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST — DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LEOPARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN PAWN'S IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM BYRON AND SHELLEY IN VOLUMES — AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PANTS, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

TO THE BREACH, NORTH CAROLINIANS!

In a little over a week, the great battle for the Constitution takes place. The time for argument has passed, and nothing now remains but to close up the ranks and get ready for action.

As we have repeatedly observed, within the past few days, while there may be some ground for disappointment, in the results of the recent State elections, there is no cause for listlessness or despondency. So far as those results indicate the spirit of the masses, they demonstrate, incontestibly, that the hearts of the people are with the Conservative Democracy, who are making so grand a struggle for the maintenance and preservation of Constitutional Union. But for fraudulent and imported votes, the aggregate majority of 100,000, which the Radicals had in the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, in the last Presidential election of 1864, would not simply have been reduced, as it has been, to less than 30,000, but would have been annihilated.—Taking all the States which have voted within the past few months, including Kentucky, the popular majority in favor of the Democracy rises above 40,000!

But supposing,—which we, by no means, concede,—that the election of Grant is certain and inevitable, we shall have, as North Carolinians, a high and solemn duty to discharge, which it would be criminal to disregard. What would have been thought of the corps, or division, or regiment, in either one of the giant armies lately confronting each other, that had cravenly failed of its duty, because of the vague fear of defeat or disaster in other parts of the field? But more than honor, (though nothing can be higher than honor,) is at stake with us in North Carolina. It is a matter of vital necessity to our best and dearest interests, as a people,—as men and women,—that we should rebuke, in unmistakable and emphatic terms, the mad and destructive spirit which pervades the administration of affairs here at home, and the corrupt and ruinous tendencies which are leading the State on to moral and material bankruptcy. Within the short period since Radical civil government went into operation in North Carolina, more has been done to humiliate our people, —to increase their burdens,—to lower the standard of their Judiciary,—to engender corruption, profligacy and villainy in high places,—in one word, to sully her bright escutcheon, than can be repaired in years. This scallawag, carpet-bag, negro government has seriously befouled, in a few short months, the reputation which it had taken our people years of earnest and honest endeavor to build up. Reared upon the rotten foundation of ignorance, proscription, venality and fraud, it stands, to day, a stench in the nostrils and an eye sore to the sight of every good and true man in the State.

It has added over $10,000,000 to the State indebtedness,—multiplied unnecessary offices, with extravagant salaries, and dispensed the people's money with a reckless and wanton hand, to fill the pockets of worthless party pets.

It has laid down, as the rule of fitness for office and employment, however high or low, Radicalism, instead of honesty, fidelity and capability.

It has displaced worthy and estimable magistrates, who had served the people faithfully, and adorned their positions, and appointed illiterate negroes in their stead.

It has made the Capitol of North Carolina the rendezvous and dormitory of negroes, and has denied our mothers, wives and daughters the privilege of even entering its public grounds for a patriotic purpose.

Through its organ, it has insulted, with the grossest and most infamous and cowardly libertinism, the fair women of the State.

It has sought to arm the negroes against the whites, by combining the former in military organizations, with a view, for mixed purposes of personal revenge and party capital, to promoting bloodshed and murder.

It has advised the negroes to steal, burn and slay, as a retaliation, if dismissed from service for political differences.

These, fellow citizens, are only a few of the more public enormities of Radical rule in North Carolina, with which you are familiar. Could we get beneath the surface, we should find yet more to startle, shock and arouse us.

We have an imperious, a solemn duty, therefore, to discharge, without reference to results or probabilities elsewhere. The people must rise in their might and majesty, and show these men in accidental power that they—the PEOPLE—rule, and that their will must be respected and obeyed.

The verdict of an indignant and overwhelming popular reprobation upon the heads of these alien and scallawag official aggressors will check them in their crazy and malignant career, or the people will know the reason why! Such a verdict, by the people of North Carolina, themselves, whether we are successful or unsuccessful in the great national struggle, is essential to our interests, our safety and our honor, alike!

THE VOTING—THE "ATTORNEY GENERAL."

All we ask is a fair, honest election. If we could prevent it, no one, white or black, should be influenced to vote, in opposition to his convictions of right and duty. We have never tried to mislead or cajole any one to vote otherwise, and we never shall. What the Democrats and Conservatives of North Carolina are determined upon, is, not to be cheated out of their votes, or to allow an election to be held contrary to law, without rebuke.

They believe that it is the deliberate purpose of the State authorities here to prevent a full and fair expression of the will of the people at the ballot-box, if they can, in order to secure the State for Grant and Colfax by foul, if not by fair, means. Our friends are anxious to have a legal election, as well as a fair one. They insist that it shall be held according to law; if it is not thus held, they will appeal to the Courts to sustain their position.

Neither "Gov." Holden nor "Attorney General" Coleman have any right to make laws. It is the duty of a Governor to execute the laws in force and not to pervert them to a wrong or partizan purpose.—When the Executive has doubts about the meaning of the law, he may apply to the Attorney General for his written opinion of the law in question, but his opinion gives no validity or force to a law not in existence, nor is his construction of a law worth a copper, unless the construction should be borne out by the Courts.

"Gov." Holden seems to suppose that he is a military Governor, not bound by the Constitution and laws in force, and by the fair construction which the Courts give to those laws, but that he is a law unto himself,—can do as he pleases,—and, hence, he follows the example of the millitary satrap, Gen. Canby, who first originated in North Carolina the ridiculous, lawless and unjust practice of requiring the people to vote, at one time and on one ballot, for forty persons, or more. His administration, in almost all respects, partakes, not of the character of that of a civil Governor, but of a military satrap, determined to make laws, if he needs them, or make those in existence bend to his personal or partizan purposes.—We tell him that neither the Constitution of the State, nor the people of North Carolina, recognise in him, as the Executive of the State, many of the powers which he exercises and claims for himself. He has no control of the ballot box, no right to dictate to Registrars or poll-holders. They are responsible to the law, and the people will hold them responsible; if, in a single instance, they violate the law. LET THEM UNDERSTAND THAT!

The law for holding the election was fully explained to Mr. Menninger, the Secretary of State, by competent parties. He was made fully to understand that there was no law for requiring the names of the Presidential Electors, members of Congress, and members of the General Assembly, all to be on one ballot and all to be put in one box. He was shown that the laws in force required a box for the Electors, a box for the members of Congress, a box for Senators and a box for Representatives, to be voted in separately. We are told that he was made sensible of this, but replied, substantially, that, if the people voted in that way, it would injure the Radical party, and that, as he had issued no order on the subject, he would not issue any. After this determination on his part, in order to secure uniformity and legality in the election, five leading and able lawyers of this city were called upon for their opinion, and gave it in the card we have published. If time had been allowed, the name of every experienced lawyer in the city could have been obtained; but it was presumed that no one would call in question the legal opinion of five such lawyers as B. F. Moore, Esq., Gov. Bragg, S. F. Phillips, Esq., Judge Fowle and Col. E. G. Haywood.

That ought to have settled the question. But "Gov." Holden, bent upon his purpose to have his own way about it, procured the legal opinion of Mr. "Attorney General" Coleman, in opposition to that of those eminent men, and published it in the Standard, as settling the matter!! Oh, Jupiter! Coleman vs. Moore, Bragg, Phillips, Fowle and Haywood! Will not the Mississippi run up stream after this? Will not the sun stand still in his course and the moon refuse to shine?

Now we regret to be compelled to make the disclosure, but truth and justice require it. We are assured, and it is generally believed in this City, that, about the time that Mr. Coleman is said to have written the aforesaid opinion to "Gov." Holden, he was in no condition to give an opinion and had not been for several days. He left this City, with a friend, on the morning the opinion was published. He may have been surprised when he saw it. We are told that, apart from his habits, there are officers of the State government here, who consider his law opinions worthless, and who are really anxious for him to resign.

Let all Registrars, poll-holders, &c., in the State, therefore, understand, that "Gov." Holden has no authority to order how the election shall be held. They are amenable to the law and not to "Gov." Holden, for a proper discharge of their duty, and if they do not hold a legal and fair election, they will be indicted in the Courts, for the violation of law!

To save expense, the tickets may all be printed on one ballot, but, when the people vote, they should separate them and insist upon their being put in the proper boxes.

THE NEW ORLEANS Crescent thus states correctly the position of the Southern delegates in the National Democratic Convention. It is the position which we should maintain now:

"The Republican says that Gen. Blair was nominated in deference to the views and wishes of the Southern States. Now, considering that not a single Southern delegate opened his mouth in the New York Convention, except to ratify the nominations when they were made, this is rather a ridiculous assertion. Gen. Blair was nominated unanimously. He had no opponent before the Convention. The Southern delegations did not press any candidate upon the Convention. They were pleased with the nomination of Gen. Blair, as they would have been pleased with the nomination of any other good Democrat."

ALABAMA.—Information received from Alabama gives a hopeful view of the political prospect there. It is believed that the registration will be complete in time for the Presidential election, and, what is quite as important, that it will be full and fair. An election is, therefore, pretty certain to be held, and it is quite as certain that the vote of the State will be cast for Seymour and Blair.

OHIO.—The Radical majority in Ohio, on the Congressional ticket, is only 4,740.

From the Richmond Enquirer.

KILPATRICK.

This individual is employing the leave of absence from his post as Minister to Chile, allowed him by Mr. Secretary Seward, in going all over the North and vaporing about the Presidential contest. The pith of his speeches consists of abuse of his betters, and includes a number of such "anecdotes" as he lately told of Gov. Vance, of North Carolina, and which the latter has just shown to be a lie out of the whole cloth. His latest performance took place in Boston, and embraced a violent harangue in abuse of Gen. McClellan and other gentlemen who belonged to the late Union army. Nothing exhibits the character of the Radical party in a more loathsome light than their apotheosis of such fellows as this Kilpatrick, a low vulgarian, unfit to speak to decent people of any grade, and scarcely worthy the fellowship of pimps and bawds, who are his favorite companions. And yet he is a leader in the Radical party!

In one of his late performances, he blurted out a bullying boast as ridiculous as it was cowardly, about his desire to "make a charge" upon Gen. Lee, Gov. Seymour and Gen. Blair. On this point the National Intelligencer well says:

"We think it would take a very strong force to hold Kilpatrick if Gen. Frank Blair were known to be coming. He would not dare to meet his eye, still less to hurl at him the vulgar epithets which are the special vocabulary of the Jacobin leaders and the jackalls who follow them. Kilpatrick would do as he did in Chile—crave leave of absence in order to "see his sister." By the way, we should like to be informed by the State Department whether the salary of this Minister to Chile is still running on.—Does he get any pay for all this filth he is pouring out; and how much?

In may, 1863, Kilpatrick, with a numerous and well appointed force of cavalry, appeared before Richmond. There were no troops there, and the city lay completely at his mercy. That it was not taken is due to his want of nerve and soldierly conduct. The same thing nearly happened on the occasion of the Dahlgren raid, when, after a weak and feeble attack on Richmond, he suffered himself to be repulsed by a small force, hardly a fourth of his own. For such an individual to speak of "making a charge" is simply ridiculous. His true forte lies in "making a charge" for services as Minister which he does not render."

From the New York Express.

INDIANA AND PENNSYLVANIA.

The "Times" admits that nothing but the official count can decide Baker's majority. The official count of the details of the Indiana election, if fairly sent in, and the Ohio and Illinois Radical votes counted out, will elect Hendricks, and not Baker.

In Philadelphia, (where more votes were counted by nearly five thousand than were ever polled in New York city,) it is alleged and believed that the Radicals, whose men generally had control of the polls, polled at least 8,000 fraudulent votes. Several thousand Democratic naturalized citizens were denied the ballot, though entitled to it by law and usual modes of proceeding, and yet the majority is under 10,000. The truth is the Democrats have been cheated out of the State offices in both of these States.—Radicals thrive by frauds on the ballot-box and by peculations on the Treasury.

BEAT THE REGISTRATION! Let no improper person register. Challenge improper persons at the registration!

NEW YORK.

ADDRESS OF THE TAMMANY HALL GENERAL COMMITTEE.

"The Democracy of the city of New York, represented in the Tammany Hall General Committee, congratulate the Democracy of Pennsylvania and the Western States upon the spirit and indomitable energy evinced by them in their recent contests, which are but the preliminary skirmishes to the great national battle to be fought next month.—We congratulate them upon the great advantages won. Those advantages would have been full triumphs, if it had not been for the expenditure of a vast corruption fund, calculated by millions, collected not only from the placemen and officeholders of the Radical Congress, but also from the combination who have been depreciating the revenues of the government by illicit manufactures. Even this corruption fund would not have resulted in preventing the preliminary triumphs of the Democracy in the State of Pennsylvania, if it had not been for the arbitrary acts of Radical inspectors, in direct disobedience of the Courts and in violation of the Constitution and laws of the United States, in refusing to receive the votes of our naturalized fellow-citizens. The votes of the naturalized citizens who were denied the right of suffrage in Pennsylvania, because they intended to vote with us, would have been more than enough to have given us victory at the late election. We are glad to hear that our friends there have determined that the votes of our adopted citizens shall be received at the coming election.—But the corruption treasury of the enemy cannot be again successfully used under the vigilance of the Democracy. The co'onizers sent by the Radical Committees of this State must remain here to contest, though in a futile effort, the Empire State. The gallant Democracy of Philadelphia have redeemed their city from Radical despotism, and we receive with confidence the despatches that with a fair election and pure ballot, which they are now likely to have, they will be victorious by a largely increased majority in the decisive battle of next month. Our brethren in Ohio have contended against the heavy majorities of fanaticism and radicalism.—They have struggled gallantly. They have fought an honest fight. The votes which were cast by them were their own. The unscrupulous enemy filled the Northern counties of Ohio with carpet-baggers and colonizers from the strongholds of radicalism of adjoining States. Thousands of negroes voted in violation of law and the overwhelming decision of the people in the election of last year. But the democracy have made wonderful gains.

Victory in Indiana was almost within our grasp. By fraudulent canvassing our foes gain the State, but by less than 1,000 majority. Our brethren there send us word that the democracy of Indiana will give an increased vote next month. Indiana has virtually repudiated the radical candidate on the national ticket. * * *

We are united. We believe in our cause. It is the cause of constitutional liberty, of personal rights, of a fraternity of States, of an economical government, of the financial credit of the nation, of one currency for all men, rich and poor—of the political supremacy of the white race and the protection of white labor. The Radicals of Pennsylvania and the Western States have placed another plank in their platform. It is to proscribe the vote of naturalized citizens. In their despotic policy to control our country they gave the suffrage to the negro race of the Southern States and have exiled white labor. They boldly proclaim that their laws and policy shall protect the negro and oppress the naturalized citizen. Their next step will be to bring the Southern negro North to vote down and compete against the white laborer. Rally, then, for our national chieftains and our national policy!

Is not the pending contest pre-eminently one of capital against labor, of money against popular rights, and of political power against the struggling interests of the masses?

Only two weeks for contest remain.—Let, therefore, every friend to constitutional right, every sympathizer with the struggling white laborer, every ally of fair play to the naturalized citizens, and every foe to municipal oppression, relax no effort to secure a tremendous majority for our electoral ticket, representing the honored names of the patriotic statesman, Seymour, and the gallant soldier, Blair, headed by Slocum, the veteran leader of Sherman's forces, and the State ticket bearing the name of our fellow citizen and universal favorite, John T. Hoffman."

REMEMBER that delays are dangerous. Therefore register, TO DAY. Your vote may be necessary to carry the State.

SOMETHING FOR ASHLEY TO DO.—Now that Ashley is relieved from his Congressional duties after the 4th of March next, the best thing for him to do will be to visit his brother Radical and old political associate, Mr. Sanford Conover, now confined in a New York penitentiary. The two can tell each other how they respectively came to grief, lament how they should have fared so badly, while Holt, Stanton, and others are flourishing in wealth, place, and liberty of locomotion, and concoct schemes of elevation and promotion hereafter—a pardon for Conover from Grant, and a mission for Ashley to some country where long hair is the fashion.

The fact that Ashley is beaten over 700 in a Republican district shows that a considerable section of the Republicans there are beginning to wake up, and find that all is not gold which glitters, and that loyalty, after all, may be a mere cloak for scoundrelism. When this fact fairly dawns upon the minds of the business men of the Radical party, it will be a dark day for the Jacobin leaders.—Nat. Intel.

HUMBUG!—Sixty nine persons, calling themselves War Democrats, have signed a call for a meeting in favor of Grant for Wednesday evening. Several of these parties did the same thing on the eve of the election in 1864. One-fourth of the signers never were Democrats; nine tenths of them have not acted with the Democratic party since 1860, and some for a much longer time; many of them are well known Government contractors, and made immense sums out of the Government; numbers of them are stock and gold operators, bond holders, note shavers, small bankers, and sports.—N. Y. Express.

PAY UP, OR LEAVE THE BALL-ROOM.—Every clerk in every department of the Government was yesterday the recipient of a printed circular from the Republican Congressional Committee, asking contributions to aid the Republican cause. The circular says: "The Republican National Committee, being profoundly impressed with the importance of vigorously prosecuting the present political campaign, would suggest a voluntary offering in aid of the work.—Whatever amount is contributed will be acceptable and judiciously expended."—Washington Express, 21st.

REGISTER! Do not forget it. Every thing depends upon your registration and your vote.

THE rapid advancement of "THE EQUITABLE," to the very front rank of American Life Insurance Companies, the unprecedented amount of its new business for the year ending September 30th, 1868, being over the large accumulation by it of EIGHT MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, together with an annual income of FIVE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, afford the very best evidences of its popularity, success and reliability.

TICKETS! TICKETS!

The election is only about ten days off. Are the Counties supplied with tickets? We fear this matter is being neglected in some portions of the State. It was announced, weeks ago, that each County must supply its own tickets. Are you supplied, friends?

We print plain tickets, on plain paper, for $2 per thousand, and on colored paper, with flags, for $3 per 1,000. These embrace the Electoral ticket, and the Congressional ticket for each District. Cash must accompany the orders.

THE RALLY, LAST NIGHT.

TUCKER HALL, which had been procured for the purpose, was well filled, last night, on occasion of the Democratic rally.

Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., of Orange, in response to an invitation, addressed the meeting at length and in his accustomed forcible and vigorous manner. He dealt the enemy some hard blows, which were lustily cheered by the audience.

We regret that circumstances prevented the expected visit of Mr. Nash. Our people are anxious to hear him.

The meeting, last night, was every way encouraging, and proves that the gallant Conservative-Democracy of Raleigh are neither shaken nor disheartened. To your work, men!

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—North Carolina Books wanted: James H. Ennis, Bookseller.

REGISTRATION.—Up to yesterday afternoon, registration stood at about the following figures, viz:

Whites,	460
Blacks,	1,013
Total	1,473

We should judge that the negroes were about through registering. Let the white men, therefore, register, at once,—now—TO DAY. Do not delay, friends. By every consideration that is dear to you, come up to your duty! Need we urge this matter further?

The Baptist State Convention will convene in Hillsboro' on the 28th instant.

TURNER'S N. C. ALMANAC FOR 1869.—Mr. Jas. H. Ennis, Bookseller, has laid us under obligations for a copy of this publication. It is neatly printed and contains the usual amount and variety of valuable matter. Price—single copy, 10 cts.; dozen, 75 cts.; half gross, $4; gross, $7.

NOTICE—PIANOS.—We take pleasure in informing our friends, and the musical public, generally, that Mr. F. W. Walter, the well known agent and tuner of the firm of Wm. Knabe & Co., of Baltimore, will be in the City, in a few days. All in need of his services should leave their orders at once at the Exchange Hotel.

EXCELLENT NOMINATIONS.—Major A. C. Avery, of Burke, is the Democratic candidate for Senator in the 41st Senatorial District, vice E. W. Jones, Esq., of Caldwell, declared ineligible under the Howard Amendment.

W. H. Malone, Esq., is the Democratic candidate for the "House of Representatives" in the County of Caldwell, vice Col. J. C. Harper, banned.

Both of these are most admirable selections.

The Seymour and Blair Club of Wilson are receiving new colored members at almost every meeting.

Wm. Reston, Esq., for a number of years Cashier of the Bank of North Carolina, in Wilmington, died suddenly, under a stroke of heart disease, at his residence in that city, on Tuesday. He attended to his business as usual, on the day preceding. Mr. Reston was a most estimable citizen.

BORDER STATE FAIR.—The second annual Fair of the Border Agricultural Society opened at Danville on Tuesday. A multitude of visitors—from three to five thousand—were in attendance.

The annual Address, on the same day, was delivered by the Hon. Z B. Vance.—The Richmond Dispatch, of the following morning, with remarkable telegraphic enterprise, contains the address in full. It occupies nearly four closely printed columns of that paper, and, when the pressure of the campaign is removed, we hope to be able to find room for it. The address is of a general and philosophical character, containing, at the same time, valuable suggestions, and interspersed with occasional sallies of humor. It is worthy of the reputation of the author, and was well received.

During the day there were exhibitions of horses and cattle, moving around the track. In the afternoon, trotting matches took place, and at night there was a discussion of agricultural topics among the farmers and Prof. Mallett delivered an address before the Society.

Many of the best people of the border counties of North Carolina and Virginia are present, including a bright array of beauty

INDIANA ELECTION.—The New York Times (rep.) publishes a table of the official and reported returns from Indiana, showing a Republican majority of 726, which is a democratic gain of 13,476 since last year.

For the Sentinel.

The Insult to our Women—Letter from a Lady.

NEAR PERKIN, MONTGOMERY Co., October 16th, 1868.

Editors of the Sentinel:—Notwithstanding the distance intervening between us and the centre of political conflict in this State, the base slander emanating from the State Capital has reached us, without losing, in the least degree, its fine sentiment, force of simile or nobility of purpose! Our blood has been freezing and boiling, alternately, since the reception of your patriotic paper, containing that most noble and long to be remembered editorial of the Standard, of the 19 h. ult. The fine metaphor in regard to the "ladies' eyes" fell short of its work, notwithstanding its implied flattery. A pity, too,—for no doubt it was long studied and highly appreciated by the author. The advice given to all candidates of the Radical party, including scallawags, carpet-baggers and negroes, to "work among the Southern women," is the most preposterous and wholesale verbal outrage that has been committed on humanity in the annals of history. This advice could only be given or taken by scallawag or carpet-bagger. I absolve the negro from sentiments so base; having been raised in the South among gentlemen and ladies, they have partaken, however remotely, of the chivalry of their quondam masters, and understand, better than scallawag, carpet-bagger or any votary of such base cowardice, the true standard of female virtue. "Replace the diamonds and laces stolen from them," to induce them to get "their husbands and lovers to shout Grant and Colfax until they are hoarse?"—Allow me to say, if the women could be so easily bought, it would avail their politics nothing; for her influence over the proud chivalrous heart of the Southern husband or lover would be forever lost. But were all the diamonds of Golconda, and each one as large as the mighty Kohinoor, the richest laces of Antwerp and Brussels, laid at her feet, vain would be the inducement; she would never succumb to such a cause, urged by such a party, but spurn them from her with all the scorn that she feels for scallawag or carpet-bagger,—than which no contempt can be greater.

"Give them Byron and Shelley in volumes." Do they presume to imagine, for a moment, that their influence has been so great? That the few scattered scallawags and carpet-baggers, (even with their mighty organ to thunder forth their immoral sentiments,) have rendered a whole race of noble people so corrupt that they cannot read Byron and Shelley, without losing their virtue? Standard works, whose beauties and defects have been commented on for ages past, and which time has almost rendered classic. Their self complacency must be great, indeed, at what they imagine they have accomplished.

"Don't fail to look after the women.—You are all good looking and you know it." I never saw a scallawag or carpet-bagger, (although this may argue myself unknown,) to be aware of the fact; but, judging from the euphonious names they have assumed, and the fine feeling and sentiment displayed by them, they must, indeed, be Apollos!

The negro equality which the party so much desire may properly have supreme sway in their own homes, but never in ours. We, with our children, may be reduced to abject want and even beggary, but never to negro equality or equality with the votaries of such political filth. Thank Heaven! sentimental, sympathizing Desdemonas are the rara aves of the South; consequently, the Othellos are few. May a kind Providence prepare an Iago for the destruction of all such couples!

"The knife, the bullet, the bludgeon" are advised by their leaders to be brought into requisition, to aid in the consummation of their wishes; even sparks from Heaven are invoked to destroy the homes of all rebels. An useless invocation! 'Tis "the prayers of the righteous that availeth much." But the vengeance of a just Heaven,—were the fate of our land that of Sodom and Gomorrah,—were far preferable to being ruled by scallawags and carpet-baggers.

Oh! could Lethe's stream sweep o'er our country and wrap in deep and sure oblivion the names of all traitors, the memories of all their deeds! But, no! Lethe, being fabulous, they must await a final terrible retribution. We do not contend for a vain punctilio; a clear unblemished character comprehends not only the integrity that will not offer, but the spirit that will not brook, an insult, and whether it belongs to an individual, or a race of people, it is the foundation of peace, independence and safety. "Private credit is wealth, public honor is security; the feather that adorns the bird supports his flight; strip him of his plumage and you fix him to the earth." But why speak of honor, integrity and spirit? of peace independence and safety? when, to use the words of Sir Richard Steele, "we are ruled by a set of drivellers, whose folly takes away all dignity from distress and renders even calamity ridiculous."

The past gross unparalelled slander on the women of the South can never be forgotten. With an indelible pen of fire, it has been engraved upon our hearts, and involuntarily the lines of Byron are called upon to bear upon the subject:

Oh! wretch without a tear—without a thought,
Save joy above the ruin thou has wrought!—
The time shall come, nor long remote, when thou
Shall feel far more than thou inflictest now;
Feel for thy vile self, loving self in vain,
And turn thee howling to unpitied pain.
May the strong curse of crushed affections light
Back on thy bosom with reflected might,
And make thee, in thy leprosy of mind,
As loathsome to thyself, as to mankind!
Till all thy thoughts curdle into hate,
Black, as thy will for others would create;
Till thy hard heart be calcined into dust,
And thy soul welter in its hideous crust.
Oh! may thy grave be as sleepless as the bed,
The widowed couch of fire that thou would'st spread!
Then when thou would fain weary Heaven with prayer,
Look on thy earthly victims and despair.
Thy name, thy human name, to every eye,
The climax of all scorn, should hang on high,
Exalted o'er thy less abhorred compeers,
And festering in the infamy of years!

THE EFFECT OF "STUMP SPEECHES."—A striking illustration of the value of stump speeches, remarks the New York Sun, may be found in the election to Congress of Gen. Strader, the new democratic member from Cincinnati. He made but one speech during the whole canvass, and here it is: "Never mind the weather, boys, so the wind don't blow!" His opponent, Mr. Eggleston, made a hundred speeches, more or less, all elaborate and eloquent, but Strader was too much for him.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—We are much gratified to learn from an intelligent citizen of South Carolina, now in this city, that the upper section of that State is slowly recovering its former prosperity.

We are informed that in three out of the four Congressional Districts there is a prospect that Conservative Congressmen will be chosen.—National Intelligencer.

STIR UP your friends to REGISTER AND VOTE. Don't neglect this. Remember we must carry North Carolina for Seymour and Blair, on the 3rd. of November.

Our New York Correspondence.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—If a calm and impartial survey of the recent political battle fields, from this point, discloses the fact that we have been worsted, with raw recruits, in several pitched battles, with the veteran corps of the Republicans, should it, for a moment, deter us from strengthening our lines and bringing up every new recruit for the grand struggle for liberty and justice to the South, which will be fought in every State in the United States, in November next? The Democrats, North, with a few exceptions, are neither dismayed nor disheartened, and while one or two papers have blundered into the counsel for retreat, with the gallant men at the head of the ticket, as a body the party intend to stand by the color bearers, who have enabled it to make such terrible havoc in the ranks of a powerful enemy, who have used such sums of money and such means to prevent defeat as was never approached before by any political organization in this country. Talk about retreat! If the attempt were made it would at once disorganize the Democratic party, and not leave a sufficient number in the field to make a decent Corporal's guard.

No, gentlemen, the only safety for the party, and particularly for the South, if not for the country, is to stand firmly by the candidates. No better men could be selected, either for ability or popularity. If they cannot be elected, no others could, on the Democratic ticket. We should remember the Republicans deserted their principles in a measure for the men. Neither Grant nor Colfax are their choice. Sumner and Wade are the leaders of the party, and who would doubt, for a moment, the result of a contest of those men with Seymour and Blair? Why did they, in their platform, leave negro suffrage to the States, North, to decide, and determine it for the States, South? It was for votes. They would sacrifice the earth, turn away from Heaven, and unite with the Devil himself, for votes. Money flows from them like water. Every department of the Government is in their hands; nearly every office-holder is working with and for them. Bureaus in the South, Governors, Legislatures and Policemen, North, are all using their influence for the success as of the Republican party, and, notwithstanding, we find them escaping from the last contest with shattered ranks and with the exclamation, from the lips of their chosen leaders, "another such victory will be equivalent to defeat!"

The suggestion, in reference to the withdrawal of either one of the names on the Democratic ticket, is universally condemned. It is looked upon, by all classes, as one of those blunders which is worse than a crime, because there is no remedy. It must do injury, yet we must close up the ranks and work the harder. If the elections in Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania have not filled us with the hope one expected and desired, they have proven the cause is not so hopeless as many of us for a long time believed. What other party, with its numbers, means and the undoubted personal popularity of its standard bearers, ever gained so largely in the same time as the Democratic party has on the Republicans?

Whatever may be otherwise said, Grant's name in this contest is a tower of strength—no other man they had could have approached him with the people, and, more especially, as the old issues of the war have been sung over the land, from the day of his nomination. "Rebel and traitor" is as rife now, as it was in the days of the Revolution. Every pictorial paper is in the Republican service. Every imaginary diabolical act, South, is sown broad-cast among the people. Everything to stir the Northern blood and passions against the South is brought forward in its most hideous form. No ink is black enough to represent Robert E. Lee, stripping the shoulder straps from Gen. Grant, and, with the aid of Blair, placing them on his own shoulders.

I say again, then, is it not wonderful that the Democratic party should have gradually increased in numbers and strength, against such fearful odds and means to defeat them? If they will but hold the field with the determination and courage that Wellington did, their Blucher will certainly appear in time, with recruits, to save them! D.

A BALTIMORE LADY'S PLAN FOR THE PAYMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.—Secretary McCulloch received a letter Saturday from a lady in Baltimore, stating that she had been informed that the interest on two cents for a thousand years would pay off our public debt. She had not made the computation and could not speak positively, but if this is the case she could not see the utility of so much talk about repudiation, when the payment of the national debt is only a matter of two cents and a question of time. She was willing to furnish the principal for that purpose, and accordingly enclosed two cents which she requested should not be deposited to swell the conscience fund, but should be placed at interest for the liquidation of the public debt.

BE ON THE ALERT, friends of Seymour and Blair! See that all our friends REGISTER AND VOTE!

The official majority for Hartranft is only nine thousand, six hundred and seventy-seven.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.

The Court of Appeals of this State decides that the test oath, under the Constitution of the United States, cannot be required by legislation, as a condition of right of suffrage, and that the Legislature of the State of New York has no power to establish, by law, any qualification, whatever, for electors in this State.

MORE NEGRO OUTRAGES.

MOBILE, Oct. 22, P. M.

A white woman, sixty years of age, was assaulted and ravished by three negroes, in the outskirts of the city, on yesterday, in broad daylight. Her life is in serious danger from injuries inflicted. Citizens are in pursuit of the negroes.

A market man was assaulted by negroes yesterday morning, a short distance from the city, and was mortally wounded by a musket shot.—While insensible, he was robbed of everything, even to his shoes.

FROM THE PACIFIC.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22, P. M.

The steamer Rising Star, with a quarter of a million and Panama dates of the 14th, has arrived.

The great tidal wave, which started from Peru, on August 13th, reached Australia, the next day, with a simultaneous earthquake. No serious damage.

Private dispatches from San Francisco say that the Earthquake damages will not exceed three hundred thousand dollars.

Handsome Property for Sale.

WILL BE SOLD, on Tuesday, the 27th of October, 1868, at Auction, before the Court House in Tarboro', that very desirable residence lately owned by Jos W Wimberly, Esq., situated about 4 miles from the town of Tarboro', and within five hundred yards of McNair's crossing on the Tarboro' Branch Railroad.

The Tract consists of

of first-class Piney Woods Land, about 20 acres cleared, balance in original forest growth. The soil is finely adapted to the cultivation of COTTON, CORN and Vegetables. A beautiful Truck or Fruit Farm could be made of it. Several Scuppernong Vines in bearing and a choice lot of selected Peach, Pear, and Apple Trees adjoining the residence.

The Dwelling, a modern-built house of eight rooms, four below and four above, with wide passage on first floor, and verandas in front and rear, is handsomely located in a grove of two acres. A well of purest cold water on the premises. Every necessary out-house, all in a fine state of preservation. This place is situated in a proverbially healthy country, chills and fever being almost unknown, and is about the centre of one of the finest neighborhoods in the country. A residence combining so many advantages is seldom in the market.

Possession given on 1st January, 1869.

Terms—Twelve months credit, with interest from that date.

On same day and same terms, Jos. W. Wimberly's one-fourth remainder interest in the Wilson Tract of Land, and his one-fourth remainder interest in the Harrison Fund.

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but ever, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at E. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

NOTICE.

THE OFFICE OF THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURance Co. has been removed to the upper rooms over the Clothing Store of Messrs Andrews & Co., and adjoining the Messrs. Tucker's Hall, where the public are invited to an examination of all the official Reports of the various Insurance Companies of America. Their progress and standing in y thus be easily and reliably ascertained. The progress of the old Ætna, as thus to be seen, will not fail to secure confidence and patronage of those desiring to provide for themselves or families. This Company has promptly met over sixty thousand dollars in death losses in North Carolina within three years. And, as a guarantee for the future, has now assets over and one hundred and thirty dollars to pay every one hundred of her liabilities. To the weary and anxious enquirer for a place of safe investment, call while in health and strength upon the subscriber and obtain from $1,000 to $20 000. Delays are often fatal.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide, that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau, (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partizan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution: and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead lands, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It palters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.
